Dear Ms. Franklin:

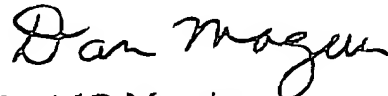

Following up on the voicemail messages that I have left for you over the last few weeks, I would like to schedule an interview in this matter.

At your request, I sent the claims to you March 27, 2003 (copy of correspondence enclosed).

We are quite anxious to move this matter along. My client patented the same invention in Europe and Australia, and there has been actual infringement here in the U.S. Our petition to make special on the basis of this infringement was granted.

Therefore, I would appreciate it if you could schedule an interview for tomorrow or Friday. Please let me know which of these dates is convenient for you.

Sincerely,

Daniel P. Maguire
